GOVERNMENT MEDIA MONITORING AND ANALYSIS DAILY BRIEF

DATE: MONDAY, 12 OCTOBER 2026

Newspaper	Page	Headline	Brief Summary	Government Source Quoted	Sentiment	O/M/A	Comment
The Namibian	Online	Namibia's working poor trapped by low wages	He says the rising cost of food, rent and electricity makes it even harder for low-paid workers to keep up with their financial obligations. Workers at Wernhil Mall also say the rising cost of rent, electricity, food and education continues to put them under financial pressure.	None	Neutral	Ministry of Justice and Labour Relations; Electricity Control Board	None
The Namibian	Online	Pensioner's N$4m theft case postponed	A total amount of N$4 006 825 is claimed to have been stolen from estates administered by Dobberstein. It is also alleged that she stole an amount of N$875 150 from another estate between June 2023 and April 2025.	None	Negative	Ministry of Home Affairs, Immigration, Safety and Security	None
The Namibian	Online	Meatco puts 400 workers on leave with full pay amid FMD	Meatco interim chief executive Albertus Aochamub last week confirmed that the affected employees had been sent home on full pay, with all their benefits remaining intact. Meatco on Friday announced it has paid producers N$31 million over the past two weeks for cattle delivered to its Windhoek abattoir between 29 August and 11 September.	None	Positive	Meat Corporation of Namibia; Ministry of Agriculture, Fisheries, Water and Land Reform	None
The Namibian	Online	GIPF faces SARS tax storm involving N$815m	Minister of finance Ericah Shafudah said this in the National Assembly on Thursday, while responding to questions from official opposition leader Imms Nashinge. Shafudah further reported that GIPF assets had grown to N$204 billion by December 2025, with a funding level of 119.69%.	Ericah Shafudah, Minister	Positive	Ministry of Finance; Parliament of Namibia	None
The Namibian	Online	Dennis Noa denies raping man, admits to giving him sedative	According to his account, the two shared food and alcohol before engaging in what he described as consensual sex. Noa had been convicted and sentenced to eight years' imprisonment after being found guilty of raping an unconscious patient in April 2021.	None	Negative	Ministry of Home Affairs, Immigration, Safety and Security	None
The Namibian	Online	Gym instructor admits guilt on nine charges, including murder of ex-girlfriend	Murangi admitted that he murdered bank employee Frieda Amadhila (29), who was his former girlfriend, after breaking into her flat in Windhoek during the night of 7 to 8 April 2024. "I have thus tendered this guilty plea as a token of my remorse," Murangi stated.	None	Negative	Ministry of Home Affairs, Immigration, Safety and Security	None

Newspaper	Page	Headline	Brief Summary	Government Source Quoted	Sentiment	O/M/A	Comment
The Namibian	Online	Training puts farmers' field schools in focus	Farmers learn in the field through practical activities involving crops, soil, water and other natural resources. The schools aim to help communities address challenges such as land degradation, water scarcity, climate change and biodiversity loss, while improving agricultural production.	None	Negative	Ministry of Agriculture, Fisheries, Water and Land Reform; Ministry of Environment, Forestry and Tourism	None
The Namibian	Online	FMD derails Namibia's El Niño plans	Last month, the Namibia Meteorological Service said it expects El Niño conditions to strengthen from October, potentially bringing a hotter and drier than normal rainy season. The outbreak has disrupted livestock sales, including auctions, making it difficult for farmers to reduce their herds in preparation of possible dry conditions.	None	Positive	Ministry of Agriculture, Fisheries, Water and Land Reform; Namibia University of Science and Technology	None
The Namibian	Online	Agribank to assess FMD-hit farmers for repayment relief	Agricultural Bank of Namibia (Agribank) chief executive Robert Eiman says the restrictions could put pressure on farmers who are unable to sell or move livestock while still having to meet their financial obligations. However, the bank did not specify what repayment options could be made available to affected borrowers, such as payment holidays, loan restructuring or extensions.	None	Neutral	Agribank	None
The Namibian	Online	Keetmanshoop man arrested for killing girlfriend	Shikwambi says Waterboer's next of kin have been informed and police investigation continues. The victim was taken to Rundu Intermediate Hospital and is in a serious condition.	None	Negative	Ministry of Home Affairs, Immigration, Safety and Security	None
The Namibian	Online	Lawyer Conradie sentenced to pay N$200 000 fine on corruption charges	Conradie and a co-accused, Sara Damases, were sentenced in the Windhoek High Court on Monday. Neither Conradie nor Damases benefited personally from the scheme in which they were involved, though, Masuku noted.	None	Neutral	Mobile Telecommunications Limited	None
The Namibian	Online	Woman suffers serious burns after attack	This was announced in the weekend crime report by national police spokesperson deputy commissioner Kauna Shikwambi. "It is alleged that during an argument, the suspect kicked a pot of boiling porridge at the victim, causing serious burns to her face, hands and legs," she says.	None	Negative	Ministry of Home Affairs, Immigration, Safety and Security	✓ 2026-10-12 — Ministry of Home Affairs, Immigration, Safety and Security: "The Ministry of Home Affairs, Immigration, Safety and Security notes the reported incident and confirms that the Namibian Police Force is investigating the matter. The Ministry is committed to ensuring justice is served. Public safety remains the Ministry's highest priority."

Newspaper	Page	Headline	Brief Summary	Government Source Quoted	Sentiment	O/M/A	Comment
The Namibian	Online	Woman arrested for drugs worth N$2.2m at Goreagab	A Namibian woman (38) has been arrested after police seized cannabis and Mandrax tablets worth more than N$2.2 million at Goreagab, Windhoek, on Saturday. The woman is facing charges under the Abuse of Dependency-Producing Substances and Rehabilitation Centres Act for allegedly dealing in prohibited dependency-producing substances, as well as a charge under the Prevention of Organised Crime Act.	None	Negative	Ministry of Home Affairs, Immigration, Safety and Security	✓ 2026-10-12 — Ministry of Home Affairs, Immigration, Safety and Security: "The Ministry notes the arrest related to prohibited substances. The Namibian Police Force continues targeted operations to combat drug trafficking. Public safety remains our highest priority, and we urge residents to cooperate with law enforcement."
The Namibian	Online	Namibia, Germany sign N$103m energy deal	German ambassador Thomas Wimmer and National Planning Commission director general Kaire Mbuende signed the agreement during a meeting in Windhoek last week. Germany's development cooperation portfolio in Namibia comprises more than 50 projects covering sustainable energy, vocational training, urban development and natural resource management.	None	Positive	National Planning Commission	None
The Namibian	Online	Air feasibility study?	COMPETITION Nekundi said the feasibility study cannot be made public due to competition as it would reveal the airline's strategies to competitors.Kalangula claimed many Namibian aviators had not been consulted and that planning was being handled by a small group. Air Namibia was liquidated in 2021 after years of financial difficulties and government support.	Nekundi, Minister	Positive	Air Namibia	None
The Namibian	Online	President meets Chinese firm behind Hyphen project	President Netumbo Nandi-Ndaitwah met the Chinese company leading Namibia's flagship green hydrogen project during her state visit to China. Hyphen chief operating officer Giuseppe Surace says the company is discussing expanding CC7's role beyond its existing engineering and construction contracts.	None	Positive	Ministry of International Relations and Trade	None
The Namibian	Online	Durban's uneasy calm: Can the state keep a lid on anti-immigrant violence?	A well-placed source told Daily Maverick: "The police intelligence seems lacking, like it was in July 2021 [when supporters of former president Jacob Zuma rioted during his incarceration, leading to 350 deaths]. SAPS spokesman, Colonel Robert Netshiunda, said police had used stun grenades, tear gas and rubber bullets when necessary during the recent protests.	None	Negative	Ministry of Home Affairs, Immigration, Safety and Security	None

Newspaper	Page	Headline	Brief Summary	Government Source Quoted	Sentiment	O/M/A	Comment
The Namibian	Online	Fighting FMD with Spatial Intelligence	SMARTER ZONING The current discussion about dividing Namibia's FMD-free area into smaller zones makes this particularly relevant. A geographic information system can help test different zoning options before implementation by identifying existing physical barriers, livestock movement corridors, animal concentrations, affected communities, and locations where additional controls could impose unnecessary economic costs.	None	Positive	Ministry of Agriculture, Fisheries, Water and Land Reform	None
The Namibian	Online	Planting Trees Should Be Fashionable	Human nature dictates that when our time on earth comes to an end, we should leave behind something valuable for future generations. Besides providing shade, shelter, bearing fruit and other conventional uses of trees, they also serve as natural air coolers in our midst.	None	Positive	Ministry of Environment, Forestry and Tourism	None
The Namibian	Online	Namibia, Germany deepen green partnership	Interventions will focus on climate change adaptation, particularly in rural communities, which both governments agreed is a key issue for Namibia. The two countries have previously worked together on projects in renewable energy, sustainable urban development, biodiversity and water.	None	Positive	Ministry of International Relations and Trade	None
The Namibian	Online	What is Namibia's new plan for climate change?	Namibia released its Third Nationally Determined Contribution (NDC 3.0) in September, laying out the country's plan to address climate change. As one of the driest countries in sub-Saharan Africa, Namibia is increasingly exposed to drought, rising temperatures, variable rainfall, floods and wildfires," environment minister Indileni Daniel says.	None	Positive	Namibia Development Corporation	None
New Era	Online	President praises Strydom for contribution to Judiciary	He was an institution-builder whose work formed part of Namibia's transition to constitutional government. Their deeper meaning lies in the continuity he provided as our constitutional institutions took root and matured," she stated.	None	Positive	Electoral Commission of Namibia	None
New Era	Online	Mining drives trade as France becomes biggest export market	Statistician General and NSA CEO Alex Shimuafeni said exports continued to be supported by the country's mineral resources. This development reflects an improved trade balance when compared to the N$5.9 billion deficit recorded in July 2026,"he said.	None	Positive	Namibia Statistics Agency; NamDeb	None

Newspaper	Page	Headline	Brief Summary	Government Source Quoted	Sentiment	O/M/A	Comment
New Era	Online	Fresh chapter for Black Africa	He played a prominent role during his playing days at BA and contributed to team's victories in major cups competitions. "We are registering players, the registration process was extended for a week and that will enable us to have everything inact," he said.	None	Positive	Ministry of Education, Innovation, Youth, Sports, Arts and Culture	None
New Era	Online	Farmer Louw denies smuggling FMD-infected cattle	But right now, I think our focus should be containing this virus and make sure that it is eradicated. She also shared that government opted to vaccinate FMD-hit cattle rather than cull them as culling is no longer a viable option based on findings by the veterinary experts.	None	Positive	Ministry of Agriculture, Fisheries, Water and Land Reform	None
New Era	Online	Kavango East to get watermelon processing plant… govt sticks to promise	He also shared that Unam's campus in the Zambezi region has completed a prototype and sample testing for mango juice production. Ngurare said this regional layout aligns with Namibia's broader national policy regarding resources, adding that the eighth administration has taken a firm stance on critical minerals, which will require foreign investors to set up domestic processing facilities rather than exporting raw materials.	None	Positive	Office of the Prime Minister; University of Namibia	None

Kindly review the communication recommendations above and inform the MICT of any responses or actions taken by the institution to counter negative coverage.

NOTES: Highlight in red: Story is negative | Highlight in green: Story is positive | Highlight in black: Story is neutral